THE ANSWER IS-HERALD WANT ADS

The answer to many questions of how to save time, trouble, money-is Herald Want Ads.

The reason is simple. Most questions can be answered by other persons. The Washington Herald reaches tens of thousands of readers-It reaches about twice as many as its only morning competitor. It gives its readers all day in which to "get down" to the small Consequently when you advertise your wants on this page you are putting the question up to the greatest number of readers. The rate is nissioners a signed petition from resilents and property owners in the neighborhood of Garfield Park protesting against the renewal of the contract for ne removal of city garbage. The protest extension of the present contract, or that any new contract be entered into with the Jarbage Company, or any other persons, which would imply or allow the retention of the so-called garbage transfer station outh of Garfield Park, on the ground that this is a common nuisance and a constant threat to the health of the neighborhood. The present and long-connued discreditable conditions not only affect many householders, but Providence Hospital is only one block north of Garfield Park, two schoolhouses adjoin the park, and the Capitol and Library of Congress are but six blocks away."

The protest has been filed, and will be duly considered when the matter of renewal or letting of the garbage contract s taken up by the Commissioners.
